1. At the Executive Committee Meeting this morning:

b. General Carter referred to Marquis Childs' column in today's Washington Post and said that he thought we ought to take every opportunity to throw down the charge that CIA has unlimited, unaudited, unvouchered funds, as well as the charge that we make policy. We should emphasize on appropriate occasions to appropriate groups that what we do in the action field has <sup>full</sup> approval of the policy-makers.

2. I met with Matt Baird, [REDACTED] to discuss the OTR space problem. We decided that we should move the JOT Program to the R&S Building since this is the only space available or likely to be available that has a 100-man classroom. We also decided to hold on to Room 1A07 in the headquarters building. I think we will have permanent use for one room of this type in the building, and this will enable us to complete in this building the JOT class entering on duty in July. We also decided to move the JOTP Staff to the Broyhill Building along with the A&E Staff. I asked Matt to study with some care the possibility of moving the JOT Program either to [REDACTED]

3. Mr. Kirkpatrick called to say that Mr. McCone had expressed an interest in being briefed by each office in the Agency and wished to start with those of which he has seen very little. I suggested that DD/S start with the Office of Training since he has never been briefed by OTR. Mr. Kirkpatrick undertook to notify Matt Baird and to ask him to be ready on short notice for such a briefing.

7. I visited TSD and with [REDACTED] looked over their space situation in the [REDACTED]. They are very crowded indeed and do need some relief. I told them that we must face the facts, which indicate that they will be in the [REDACTED] for some considerable time to come; however, there is no question about their needing some relief from these overcrowded conditions. I asked them to see if they could not identify a unit or a group of people which could operate from some displaced location. [REDACTED] is opposed to this as a matter of principle; so am I, but I told them we might as well face the facts of life--this was probably the only way we were going to be able to relieve their condition.

8. Bob Bannerman, who has just returned from leave, was in to see me about his replacement. I told him that General Carter had advised me that he would speak to Dick Helms about the possibility of giving this job to [REDACTED]. If I don't hear something from General Carter by Thursday, 23 May, I will speak to him again.
